

Nonprofit Chosen adds Family Closet, offices

By Freeman Staff

May 16, 2017

WAUKESHA - Chosen, a nonprofit that offers foster-care and adoption support, recently opened a new office space and added a Family Closet in downtown Waukesha.

To celebrate, the Waukesha County Business Alliance held a ribbon-cutting ceremony May 9.

Pictured from left to right are: Laura Lau, Chosen board member; Waukesha County Executive Paul Farrow; Lisa Doyle, Chosen board vice president; Christina Jensen, Chosen board member; Amalie Bowling, co-founder of Chosen and board secretary; Jason Bowling, co-founder of Chosen and board president; Tom Schlindwein, Chosen board treasurer; Karen Schlindwein, executive director of Chosen; Judge William Domina; and Suzanne Kelley, president and CEO of the Business Alliance